The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 9. to Saturday November 13 1742.

The Following is a further Account from General Oglethorpe at Frederica in Georgia.

JULY the 10th. This Day was ſpent in going on with the Works, and ſending Parties out againſt the Spaniards. The Indians brought in one Priſoner and ſeveral Scalps. July 11. This Day the Spaniſh Fleet came higher up the River, and one Galley with 100 Men on board, and two Half Gallies, row'd up with the Tide of Flood for the Town. The General immediately detach'd a Party of the Indians to lie in Ambuſcade in the Woods, leſt the Enemy at the ſame Time ſhould attack by Land when they attack'd by Water; he alſo ordered all our Boats to be mann'd, viz. Two ſcout Boats, and two ſmall Boats; then lining the Banks and the Sides of the Works round the Town (which are yet unfiniſhed) with Men and Small Arms, he went to the Fort and himſelf ſaw the Guns and Haubitzers pointed, and fired ſo warmly upon the Spaniſh Veſſels that they ſeem'd diſabled; upon which the General immediately went on board his Cutter, and rowed towards them with the Boats; they turned and rowed with great Precipitation to their Fleet, which lay about ſix Miles below the Town. The General purſued them about three Miles, and then returned the ſame Evening with the Tide of Ebb. The whole Spaniſh Fleet fell down to the Mouth of the Sound, about 12 Miles from the Town, quite out of Sight of the Town. The ſame Day a Highlander, who had been miſſing ever ſince the Grenadier Fight, came in with a Priſoner; he had loſt himſelf in the Woods purſuing the Spaniards, of whom he killed Five, and made a Sixth Priſoner, and with much Difficulty, found his Way into the Town. The General gave him new Cloathing from Head to Foot, Twenty Shillings Reward, and appointed him Corporal. July 12. The General having Intelligence that there was a ſtill Silence in the Spaniſh Camp, and a great Damp amongſt the Men, ordered 300 pick'd Men of the Regiment, the Highland Company, and two of the Troops of Rangers, to be ready, and march'd at four in the Evening within two Miles of the Spaniſh Camp, where he halted, and ordered a Party to advance and view the Enemy's Poſture, in order to attack them; when unfortunately a Frenchman, who had come down, pretending himſelf a Voluntier, with ſome of the Parties, fired his Piece, and deſerted to the Spaniards; upon which the General finding his Purpoſe diſcovered, ordered the Drums to beat the Grenadiers March, and returned to Frederica. July 13. The General ſent out Scouts by Land and Water, to ſee what they could diſcover, who are not yet returned. John Milledge arrived from the Darien with an Expreſs from Savannah. The General has appointed Lieutenant Hugh Mackay, and Lieutenant Maxwell, his Aid de Camps during this Invaſion; and Lieutenant Sutherland, Brigade Major; and Sergeant Stewart, Enſign, in Regard to their brave Behaviour in the Fight.

Naples, Oct. 24. It is currently reported about this City, that Orders have been ſent from the King to Abruzzo, to aſſemble there a large Number of his Troops, deſigned for a private Expedition. In Conſequence thereof, Orders have been alſo ſent to Rieti to prepare the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for their Paſſage into the Eccleſiaſtical State. The young Princeſs is relapſed, and is look'd upon to be in Danger.

Rome, Oct. 27. On the 15th the Bali de Tencin, Ambaſſador from Malta, arrived at Fraſcati from Gaeta, where he had been landed from Malta: On the 16th he waited on the Pope at Caſtle Candolfo. In Conſequence of the Bulls of Prime Preci, granted by the Pope to the new Emperor, two Benefices have been diſpatched from the Datary to two Eccleſiaſticks of Liege, nominated by the Emperor. Many large Packets have been thrown into the Poſt Office by an unknown Perſon, directed to the College of Cardinals, Foreign Miniſters, and Prelates, who are in Poſt, containing a printed Manifeſt, with freſh Reaſons of the Spaniſh Court with Regard to their Right to the State of Milan, in anſwer to thoſe already alledged thereupon by the King of Sardinia.

Florence, Oct. 30. By the laſt Accounts from Lombardy, on the 25th Inſtant, the Auſtrian and Sardinian Troops croſſed the Panaro, and poſted themſelves at Creſpolano, Bazzano, &c. about ten Miles from Bologna. The Spaniards continue in the Neighbourhood of that City: They are diſtributed along the Reno, and have advanced two Picketts to Pianoro towards the Confines of Tuſcany, 'tis ſaid, to prevent Deſertion. On the 22d, the ſecond Battallion of the Lorrain Regiment of Foot Guards arrived here from Leghorn, for which Place, on the 23d, a Battallion of Auſtrian Deſerters, out of the Spaniſh Army, lately raiſed in the Great Duke's Service, was ſent from Florence. On the 27th a Quantity of Ammunition and Military Stores were ſent from Florence to the Fortreſs of St. Martino. The ſame Day a Spaniſh Courier was intercepted on the Confines of the Bologneſe, on his Journey from Florence to the Spaniſh Camp. On the 28th a Troop of about 80 Cuiraſſiers out of Marquiſs del Monte's Regiment of Militia, paſſed by this City from Arezzo to Prato, the Place of Rendezvous. On the 29th arrived here from Groſſeto a Company of Corſican Voluntiers. All the Letters from Bologna mention the miſerable Situation that State is in, on Account of the Diſorders which the Spaniſh Troops commit, and the great Difficulty which there is to find Proviſions for them; they harraſs the Country all about to the greateſt Degree, but there will be ſoon an abſolute Neceſſity for their moving thence for want of Subſiſtance.

Stockholm,

[Price Two Pence.]

Stockholm, Oct. 26, O. S. The first of December next is fixed for the Funeral of the late Queen of Sweden, who died on the 24th of November last Year; which Ceremony will be performed with great Magnificence. A few Days ago Mr. Guy Dickens, his Britannick Majesty's Minister at this Court, sent an Express through Finland with Letters to Sir Cyril Wych, the British Minister at Moscow, relating to the Conferences which are soon to be held at Abo or Helsingfors, for re-establishing a Peace in the North, by the Means of his Britannick Majesty's good Offices. M. Nolken, the Swedish Minister, arrived here a few Days ago from Finland, but he will return thither again as soon as the Time for opening the above-mentioned Conferences is fixed.

Dresden, Nov. 9. We hear from Bohemia, that on the 6th Instant Prince Lobcowitz marched with his Army to Unhost, which is two Miles from Prague. The same Day General St. Ignon marched to Shlan, and is supposed to have joined the former. The French have abandoned Auffig, which is now garrison'd with Land Militia, or rather Huntsmen, belonging to the Bohemian Nobility on that Frontier. Two French Soldiers were killed and seven wounded at the taking of the said Town. On the 2d Instant, the Austrian Hussars took 20 Waggons loaded with Bread near Leuthmeritz, and killed 16 Men of the Convoy. On the other Hand, the French surprized a Detachment of Hussars near Auffin, wounded their Lieutenant, killed two Men, and took six Horses. Prince Lobcowitz's Corps consists of about 20000 Men, and it is supposed that Prague will soon be blocaded on the Side of Leuthmeritz.

Dresden, Nov. 14. The Austrians have taken between 20 and 30 Waggons more loaden with Provisions, and Prince Lobcowitz has drove the French from Konigsaal, and consequently is become Master of the Moldau, as he hopes soon to be of the Elbe. It is said, that the Insurgents, and other light Troops who left Festetitz after the Raising of the Siege of Prague, are engaged again, and actually on their Return, though by their Contracts they were to winter at home. The Armies continue to be near each other towards the Danube, and the Austrians were in great Hopes of preventing the Junction of Seckendorf's Corps with the French. M. Esterhasi, the Hungarian Minister, arrived at Hubertsbourg on the 11th Instant, and on the 12th had his Audience of their Polish Majesties, who gave him great Marks of Satisfaction on the Peace between the two Courts. It is this Moment said, that the Austrians have retaken Deckendorf and Wintzner, and intend to extend their Winter Quarters to Landshut, and that 700 Imperialists were made Prisoners of War.

Copenhagen, Nov. 13. We hear from Stockholm, that it was decided in the College of Nobles by a Majority of two Voices, that to have been born and bred up in the Lutheran Religion, should be esteemed a necessary Qualification for the Prince who might be chosen to succeed to the Crown of Sweden upon the Decease of the present King. And, soon after the Decision of this preliminary Question, it having been moved in the States to appoint a Successor, the Choice fell upon the Duke of Holstein, to whom a Deputation is to be sent to Moscow to notify the same. The News of this Event, which happened the 6th Instant, N. S. came by the ordinary Post, as well as by a French Courier, who passed through this Place on the 11th, going to Paris.

Francfort, Nov. 11, N. S. The Great Duke of Tuscany, with the Army under his Command, is at Folkenstein, and the French at Worth, four or five Leagues distant from each other.

Ghent, Oct. 30, O. S. This being his Majesty's Birth-Day, the Field Marshal Earl of Stair review'd the Garrison, attended by the two Princes of Hesse and a great Number of Hanoverian and Hessian Generals. After the Review, the Four Regiments of Dragoons were order'd to dismount, and form in a single Line on the Ramparts from Antwerp Port to Brussels Port: The three Battallions of Foot Guards and Colonel Duroure's Regiment were formed from thence to the Citadel. Then the Cannon round the Citadel made a Discharge, which was answer'd by 31 Pieces of British Field Artillery. Then the Austrian Garrison in the Citadel made a Running Fire, which was follow'd by the British Dragoons and Foot on the Ramparts, and the Whole repeated three Times. During this Ceremony the Life Guards and the Grenadier-Guards were drawn up in the Couser: The Horse-Guards, Blue, and the King's Regiment of Horse, were in the Corn Market, and General Ligonier's in the Fish Market. This Ceremony being over, there was a grand Entertainment given by my Lord Stair, and another by General Honywood.

General Post Office, London, July 3. 1742.

Whereas divers Persons, thro' Ignorance or Carlessness, frequently put Letters into the General Post Offices, and the Receiving Houses both in Town and Country, directed on board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying at the same Time the Postage, as ought to be done; And whereas Letters and Packets are often put into the said Offices with Money and Rings inclosed, and in Fraud of his Majesty's Revenue, divers Persons presume to send Letters with false and counterfeit Franks.

This is to acquaint the Publick, that no Letters under any of the Circumstances aforesaid have any Right by Law to be forwarded.
